Misses' and Women's High-Grade Tailored Suits
at the Popular Prices of $25.00 and $29.50.

These are faithful copies and skillful adaptations from superb Paris models.

Included is a reproduction of an afternoon suit by Francis in silk faille.

Also a reproduction of a new semi-tailored suit by Bernard, and a splendid fancy model from Beer.

In this display you'll find new men's wear fabrics in tweed, homespun, checks, gabardine and serge—with new mannish coats and pocketed skirts—and flat silk braid used as a trimming on many of them.

The silk suits are trimmed with strappings and ornaments of self material—with new model skirts in side, box and cluster pleat effects.

Misses' and Women's High-Grade Tailored Coats
at the Popular Prices of
$15.00 and $20.00

These are fetching new models at remarkably moderate prices.

The season's most successful high-cost styles have been copied by us, to sell at the attractive prices of $15 and $20.

Most of these coats are lined throughout with fine quality soft peau-de-cygne.

The materials are covert, serge, gabardine, army cloth, tweed, homespun, checks, white chinchilla, corduroy, silk taffeta, silk poplin and silk faille.

The marriage of Miss Esther Slater, daughter of Mrs. Horatio Nelson Slater of Boston, and Mr. B. Sumner Wells of New York, which took place yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Episcopal Church of the Reconciliation at Webster, Mass., is of great interest here, where the bride has been a frequent visitor. Only a small company of relatives and friends were present at the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Endicott Peabody of Groton.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and real Venetian point lace with a long train, and carried roses. Miss Ray Slater, the younger sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a frock of pink taffeta. The ushers were Mr. Prescott Walcott, Mr. Charles Curtis, Mr. Arthur H. Huntwell, Mr. Ivan Gannell, Mr. Livingston Pyle, Mr. Schuyler Parsons, Mr. Thornton Wilson, Mr. Herbert Cunningham and Mr. Nelson Slater, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party returned to Boston by special train for a large reception, which took place at the Slater home on Beacon street at 1:30 o'clock, and was attended by nearly 300 guests. A seated luncheon was served and the 1st Corps of Cadets' Band furnished music during the afternoon.

Mrs. George von L. Meyer and Miss Julia A. Meyer have left Aiken, S. C., en route to this city.

Master Elmer F. Stein entertained a number of friends last Saturday evening in honor of his tenth birthday anniversary. After the program of musical selections contributed by several of the young folks games were enjoyed. The first prize for the Buster Brown game was won by Master Aloysius McGrath, and Miss Eleanor Dowden was awarded the consolation prize. Refreshments were served in the dining room. The color scheme of the table arrangements was in pink and the center was adorned with a beautiful birthday cake with ten candles. At the conclusion of the party each little guest was presented with a favor in the form of a combination picture of the host at the age of one and ten years. Those present were Ruth Colburn, Estelle Smith, Myra Burnap, Eleanor Dowden, Estelle Gilchrist, Thelma Kendall, Masters Aloysius McGrath, Harry Achers, Earl Columbus, Edwin Dowden, Edwin Burdette, Joe Klinge and Elmer Stein.
